Lancaster Salutes Fallen Law Enforcement Officers

Lancaster, TX – Peace Officers Memorial Day and National Law Enforcement Memorial Week are observed annually to salute the men and women who do the difficult, dangerous, and often thankless work of safeguarding our communities. During this time community member and law enforcement agencies throughout the nation remember and honor the courageous officers who devoted themselves so fully to others that in the process they laid down their own life. The City of Lancaster would like to invite you to join us in honoring the Lancaster law enforcement heroes who lost their lives in the line of duty for the safety and protection of others. On May 22, 2014, a Police Memorial Observance ceremony will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Lancaster Public Safety Building, located at 1650 North Dallas Avenue. The ceremony will take place in the front of the building near the flag poles. Should you plan to attend, please RSVP by contacting the Lancaster Police Department at (972) 218-2700.

On this day we will remember Marshal Peter M. Solomon, who died in the line of duty on November 2, 1912, and Officer Craig L. Shaw, who died in the line of duty on June 20, 2010. As we mourn the fallen, let us also remember how they lived. With unflinching commitment, they defended our schools and businesses. They kept us safe at home, on the road, and as we went about our lives. To their families of these men, we owe an unpayable debt. And to the men and women who carry their mission forward, we owe our unyielding support.
