Cinco De Mayo Block Party

Lancaster, TX – Commemorating Mexico’s victory from France in 1862, the City of Lancaster encourages all community members to celebrate and recognize one of Mexico’s most historical victories. Join us on Saturday, May 2, 2015, from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Cedardale Park in Lancaster for a Cinco de Mayo Block Party.

The Cinco de Mayo Block Party will bring communities together as we celebrate the rich culture, heritage, and history of the Mexican ancestors who fought to retain their independence from the French government. The determination to succeed in protecting their freedom, liberty and independence from future foreign invasions demonstrated the willingness of the people to defend their country once again.

This one day event will feature a variety of music and delicious food. Bounce houses, arts and crafts and games will be available FREE of cost for kids! Cedardale Park is located at 1930 Cedardale Road in Lancaster. For more information regarding the Cinco de Mayo Block Party, please call the City of Lancaster’s Quality of Life and Cultural Services Department at (972) 218-3706.
