Make a Difference!
Volunteer for a City Board or Commission

Lancaster, TX –The City of Lancaster is seeking volunteers to serve on a board or commission. Residents are encouraged to visit the City’s website at www.lancaster-tx.com to learn about the various boards and commissions. Residents can match their talents and interests with the City’s need for those interested in the community and its quality of life. There are opportunities for appointment to boards and commissions such as the Planning and Zoning Commission, Animal Shelter Advisory Committee, Airport Advisory Board, Historic Landmark Preservation Committee, Property Standards and Appeals Board, Zoning Board of Adjustment, Youth Advisory Committee, Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and Lancaster Recreational Development Corporation. For information about duties, meeting dates and an application, visit the City website or call the City’s Secretary’s office for more information. Serving on a City board or commission is a great way to be more involved in your community.

The deadline for applications is August 13, 2012. For more information please visit the City of Lancaster’s website at www.lancaster-tx.com or contact the City Secretary’s Office at 972-218-1310. Submit your application today! It’s a great investment in Lancaster’s future.
