This Operations Directive is for internal use only and does not enhance an officer's civil or criminal liability in any way. It should not be construed as a creation of a higher standard of safety or care in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party claims. Violations of this Operations Directive, if proven, may only form the basis for a complaint by this Department, and only in a non-judicial administrative setting.

SECTION 1 PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to regulate the release of police department information as well as which employees may release department information to the public.

SECTION 2 POLICY

- A. It is the policy of the department that all police department information will be released in accordance with all applicable laws related to the release of information and in accordance with the provisions this policy. It is the policy of this department to make available to media representatives information pertaining to matters within the scope of the department, with the exception of instances where the law enforcement process or fair administration of justice, would be hampered by premature disclosure of information to the public.
- B. It is the policy of the department that only persons authorized by this policy may release department information to the public and/or media.

SECTION 3 PROCEDURES

- A. PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER (PIO) (TPCA 5.04)
 - 1. Whenever possible the department's Public Information Officer (PIO) shall be the sole person responsible for the release of information to the public or representatives of the media. The Public Information Officer shall have specific training as determined by the Chief of Police prior to engaging in the duties of the department's Public Information Officer. (TPCA 5.03)
 - 2. Supervisors and Division Commanders who interact with the media shall be provided appropriate training in media relations and the Public Information Act as determined by the Chief of Police.
 - 3. It shall be the responsibility of the Public Information Officer, or the highest ranking supervisor in charge at the scene of a major incident, to obtain and convey that information which can be released to media representatives present at the scene. Information on minor incidents, such as burglaries and traffic accidents, shall be released to media representatives by the supervisor in charge at the scene in the absence of a Public Information Officer.

Subject Public Information Officer and Release of Information

4. Except as otherwise stated in the provisions of this policy, employees shall not divulge information to media representatives concerning the facts of any ongoing investigation except as determined by the Chief of Police. When the release of information has been authorized, employees are encouraged to cooperate with media representatives. Employees authorized to release routine information, reports, etc., shall do so in a courteous manner, avoiding unnecessary conversation and controversy. The employee releasing the report is responsible for reviewing all of the information contained in the report to insure that the release of the information complies with the provisions of this directive. Reports should be redacted accordingly before being released.
5. The Chief of Police shall make the determination regarding all matters pertaining to the release of administrative information to media representatives, which shall include but not be limited to:
 - a. issuing policy statements to ensure prompt and responsible release of information to the public;
 - b. serving as liaison with media representatives;
 - c. ensuring that information pertaining to administrative matters is released to employees prior to public release;
 - d. information relating to department subdivisions may be released by the Division Commander, with the exception of information relating to programs or administrative changes which have not been implemented

B. ACCESS TO CRIME SCENES AND CRITICAL INCIDENTS

1. Media representatives shall not be allowed access to a crime or accident scene if, in the judgment of the officer in charge of the scene, their presence would interfere with the investigation in progress, jeopardize prosecution, or expose them to danger. When investigating incidents occurring on private property, officers shall prohibit access by media representatives if the owner or person in charge of the property specifically requests that the media not be allowed, but employees shall not solicit such a request.
2. Unauthorized persons, including media representatives, shall not be allowed access to a crime scene until the scene is released by the officer in charge.
3. The department does not permit interviews of persons in custody by media representatives without first consulting the District Attorney. Officers may not prevent brief comments by the arrestee to media representatives while in public places, i.e., at the arrest scene, in the building lobby, etc.

C. RELEASE OF INFORMATION (TPCA 5.03)

1. The following information SHALL NOT be released to media representatives prior to an arrest:
