64rd Annual Christmas Parade & Festival

Lancaster, TX – The holiday season is in full bloom. It's that time again to spread holiday cheer! Join us on Saturday, December 9th, 2017 for a day filled with fun and holiday cheer. The day will begin with our "Hometown Christmas" parade followed by the Christmas Festival. The parade will commence at 5:00 p.m. beginning at Else Robertson Middle School, 822 W Pleasant Run Rd, and travel south to conclude at the Lancaster's Historic Town Square on Dallas Avenue. Immediately following the parade, join us at the Lancaster's Historic Town Square where we will kick off our Christmas Festival with our tree lighting ceremony and recognition program. Festival activities will include: Pictures with Santa, letters with Santa, Santa's workshop, live entertainment, vendor booths and much more! Lancaster Independent School District Fine Arts Department will provide live performances festive performances from the choir and drill team. In-N-Out Burger® and Grimaldi's Pizzeria® will be onsite to provide FREE food while supplies last.
