Councilmember Racheal Hill to attend the Texas Municipal League and the Texas Association of Mayors, Councilmembers and Commissioners Newly Elected City Officials' Orientation

Lancaster TX – Councilmember Racheal Hill was in Waco, TX on July 26-27, 2018 to attend the Newly Elected City Officials' Orientation, sponsored by the Texas Municipal League and the Texas Association of Mayors, Councilmembers and Commissioners, an affiliate of the Texas Municipal League. Elected officials from all over the state attended the meeting, which provided an opportunity for newly elected city officials to voluntarily enhance their knowledge of city government and sharpen their leadership skills. In addition, the orientation offered an opportunity to visit with elected officials from across Texas to learn how other cities are coping with similar challenges.

During this event, attendees were offered sessions on topics such as leadership, open government, parliamentary procedure, financial responsibilities, ethics, economic development, and media relations.

The Texas Municipal League is a voluntary association of 1,158 Texas cities. The City of Lancaster is a member of the Texas Municipal League.
