City of Lancaster City Manager Named Outstanding Texan of The Year

Lancaster, TX – City Manager Opal Mauldin-Jones has been named among the 2019 Outstanding Texan Award recipients by the Texas Legislative Black Caucus (TLBC). The award was presented February 25, 2019 at the TLBC Summit in Austin, TX.

The award was given to 35 African-American leaders within the public and private sector who demonstrated exemplary service and commitment to their community. Mrs. Mauldin-Jones was nominated along with DeSoto Mayor, Curtistene McCowan by State Representative Carl Sherman, District 109.

The Texas Legislative Black Caucus works to implement policies that will provide communities with resources for economic growth and to act as the liaison between politicians and constituents.
